

Homework-2

A one-meter-long stick is broken into two pieces in a purely random manner. Let X denote length of the longer piece. Obtain distribution and density functions of X and calculate its mean, variance, and median. Be formal in your approach.

Hint: Consider X as a function of an appropriate random variable.